Urban Secretary's Association Zone Conference Held Here

The Civic Centre Public Room was the site of the first Zone 6 Regional meeting of the Urban Secretaries' Association on April 17th that saw over forty municipal delegates in attendance. Delegates came from St. Albert, Hinton, Whitecourt, Mayerthorpe, Leduc, Stony Plain, Calmar as well as local government officials within a radius of 25 miles.

The principal theme of the conference dwelt with Municipal Government New Legislation which was very ably handled by William D. Isbister, Assistant Chief Inspector of the Department of Municipal Affairs.

Although he was unable to give new legislation as passed on the Municipal Government Act, the Municipal Taxation Act and the Municipal Election Act as each has not completed passage through the current legislature, he did provide many answers and clarifications of the probable acts as they will be enacted.

Mr. E. Newman, Executive Secreatry of the Alberta Urban Municipalities Association gave a message to the group from the organization and spelled out also some of the advantages and privileges accruing to members of the organization among which were legal counsel and advice from the retained lawyers and insurance help and direction from the offices of Reed, Shaw & McNaught.

He also spoke at some length on the growing interest in the Group Life Insurance Plan now available to employees of Municipal Corporations through the Alberta Urban Municipalities Association.

After the coffee break which proved in itself very fruitful in that individuals were able to meet and discuss mutual problems in their work, Mr. Ron Wilhelm of Mutual Life of Canada gave a detailed talk on the benefits, privileges and necessity for the Group Life Insurance and particularly the one available through A.U.M.

The final session was devoted to a question and answer period on the new Acts now before the legislature. The Municipal Government Act and the Municipal Election Act. It was certainly gratifying to see the interest displayed by all delegates in their seeking for information.

Mr. Isbister was literally pelted with questions and although he himself in collaboration with Mr. Stan Ross, an Edmonton Lawyer was the writer of these acts, he acquitted himself superbly.

It was the consensus that this meeting was all that it set to be and a hope was expressed that possibly another might be held before the next convention, after the Acts had received complete passage through the legislature.

The conference ended at just after five o'clock. This was the first of seven conferences being arranged in the next six weeks.

One further project to be undertaken by the Drayton Valley Lions Club will be a door to door canvass to collect spare glasses, frames and/or lenses.

The D.V. Lions conducted such a campaign once before and the response to this effort was very gratifying. At that time all these items were shipped to India. This time the glasses will be sent to Chile, South America, to be distributed among the needy people there who need them but cannot afford them.

The canvass is planned for the first week in May, with specific dates to be published later in The Western Review. Any person who wishes to donate any of these items now may do so by dropping them off at Adams Shoe Store.

Ashtrays to Become Extinct ?

Hopefully, if the current trend continues, ashtrays will one day join snuff boxes and cuspidors as museum pieces.

A few years ago at any gathering the majority present were smokers. The opposite is now rapidly taking place as more and more people (including those who have spent 20, 30 or 40 years immersed in a fog of smoke) are chucking their cigarettes into the garbage and kicking the habit.

A number of Canadian business firms have taken the lead in anti-smoking campaigns by offering various incentives to quit. They have many obvious reasons for encouraging non-smoking ---but the real results are becoming evident in the general public which is apparently beginning to heed the advice of researchers findings on the health hazards of smoking.

Your Chamber Of Commerce . . .

What is a Chamber of Commerce? A group of businessmen devoted to prove that the sun shines all the time in our municipality? Public-spirited citizens banded together to see that the community enjoys the highest possible standard of living? Supporters of free enterprise and our democratic way of life? Businessmen trying to bring new industry and more tourists to this area? These are some of the most commonly held ideas about the Chamber of Commerce. Whatever is said about the Chamber of Commerce, there is one thing sure--it is, or should be one of the most important organizations in the town.

Tne work of the Chamber of Commerce touches nearly every citizen. In most towns the Chamber of Commerce is responsible for tourist promotion. It also works with the industrial commission, seeking new industry for the town and district. It takes a leading part in community affairs, improving relations between the farmers and the businessmen, sparking community interest in a host of projects.

The community Chamber is a stabilizing influence on a community. It is instrumental in focusing greater attention on municipal, provincial and national affairs. It brings about greater understanding among various segments of the community and it makes the community a better place in which to live. The Chamber of Commerce deserves the support and understanding of all the citizens in the community.

New Industry?

During the past few weeks many people have been relishing what is known under the trade name of "Beef Jerky", a pemmican appearing product that is getting wide acceptance.

The jerky being sold here is imported from Albany, Oregon.

We never seem to run out of good ideas in Canada for many things but by and large the new food products come to us after having been processed in United States or controlled by U.S. firms.

Surely, with a little advice from the Department of Industry, we could process dried, smoked beef and retail it for less than the U.S. product. -Bashaw Star

FARM NOTES

Hay and Pasture Crops

What kinds and varieties of forage crops are recommended for each of the main soil-climatic areas of Alberta? Which varieties and mixtures are most suitable for dry, moist, saline and acid soil conditions?

Answers to these and many other questions on forage and pasture crop production can be found in the latest edition of "Hay and Pasture Crops for Alberta". This well illustrated and concise bulletin outlines the main characteristics of forage crops grown in this province, and describes their strengths and weaknesses, which make one more suited to a certain set of growing conditions than another.

The section on seeding practices covers seed-bed preparation, companion crops, inoculation, and suggested mixtures of grasses and legumes for both hay and pasture. Pasture management is discussed at some length from the point of view of available moisture, land values, type of livestock enterprise and size of operation. The various grazing systems are also evaluated.

The final section outlines the most efficient methods of handling and storing a hay crop. Such things as quality versus quantity, time of cutting, curing andtypes of storage are dealt with here.

Copies of "Hay and Pasture Crops for Alberta" can be obtained from district agriculturists and the Publications Office of the Alberta Department of Agriculture, Edmonton.

Loans Aid Farm Expansions

OTTAWA--Farmers continued to demand capital to adjust and expand their farm operations during the 1967-68 fiscal year, says Farm Credit Corporation chairman George Owen.

A total of 11,954 loans amounting to $263,236,500 was approved in that period compared with 12,167 loans for $247,947,500 in the previous year. This was a decrease of two per cent in the number and an increase of six per cent in the amount of loans.

Geographical distribution of loans, with the previous year's shown in brackets, was: British Columbia, 519 (582) loans for $13,617,400 ($15,017,800); Alberta, 2,829 (2,844)loans for $65,556,200 ($62,408,800); Saskatchewan, 3,665 (3,656) loans for $80,618,600 ($72,046.700); Manitoba, 1,211 (1,122) loans for $27,933,300 ($22,160,200); Ontario, 2,012 (2,042) loans for $43,956,600 ($43,332,600); Quebec, 1,406 (1,522) loans for $25,668,800 ($25,941,200) Atlantic Provinces, 312 (399) loans for $5,885,600 ($7,040,-200).

Long-term credit on favorable repayment terms for the right purposes is essential for the continued growth and development of the agricultural industry, say FCC officials.

Significantly, about 75 per cent of the Corporation's new funds were used last year to buy new farm units, acquire additional land or to pay off land debts.

Despite rising land prices, nearly half of the amount loaned was used by farmers to buy additional land to broaden their land base to obtain an economical size or sale of operations.

The Corporation also lends to groups of "syndicates" of three or more farmers who have entered into an agreement to share in the purchase and use of farm machinery in order to reduce their costs.

From the inception of lending under this program in January 1965 to the end of March this year, 364 loans have been made to 289 syndicates comprising 1,115 farmers. The total amount lent was $3,960,833. Loans have been made for a wide range of agricultural equipment which is being successfully used on a cooperative basis.

The Corporation has placed more than 200 Credit Advisors in agricultural centers across Canada to make its facilities readily available to the farming public.

Girls Visit Hospitals

On Thursday, April 18, 12 girls from Drayton Valley and Evansburg visited the schools of Nursing at the Royal Alexandra and Misericordia Hospitals in Edmonton.

The tour was made possible as part of a project sponsored by the Drayton Valley Chapter #33, Alberta Association of Registered Nurses, which provided representatives from the various fields of nursing as supervisors and in charge of transportation: Public Health Nursing, Mrs. B. Orieux; Medical Centre Nurse, Mrs. H. Dahl; Nursing Service Director from the Municipal Hospital, Mrs. V. Koehmstedt, were the members in charge.

Taking part in the tour were: Eileen Kjorlein, Kathy Kjorlein and Vickie Berlinguette from Frank Maddock High School, Drayton Valley, and Lynn Krasowski, Julia Semenyna, Verna Demkiw, Diane Zeller, Shirley Weiss, Faye Fausok, Gloria Kremeniuk, Sharon Udchitz, and Marie Woroschuk from Evansburg High School. These girls are all on the matriculation program and have shown an interest in pursuing professional nurses' training.

At the Royal Alex the girls observed nurses at work in both a Medical unit and a Pediatrics unit, as well as being shown related equipment. At the Misericordia, they viewed an Operating theatre, a new-born nursery, a Pediatrics unit and an emergency ward. They observed the work of related services contributing to patient care, such as physiotherapy and food service

A significant part of the tour was the opportunity for the girls to visit the schools of nursing. They obtained a first-hand impression of the teaching facilities as well as the residence facilities. Over coffee and a snack, the visiting students discussed entrance requirements, residence regulations and the extra-curricular activities contributing to the development of 'the nurse' as a whole person.

The group felt that gracious hospitality was extended by both hospitals and that the tour was very beneficial.

Bull Sale Held Last Weekend

The Second Annual Bull Sale sponsored by the West Alta Livestock Breeders Association was again quite successful as was the first venture a year ago.

Twenty-two bulls were sold at the sale Saturday at Sekura Auctions in Drayton Valley. A few of the bulls sold for the top price of $500.

Attendance was down slightly from the first year but it was felt that several other sales taking place the same day at other communities in the area may have been a factor in reducing the crowd.

The sale this year was preceeded by a show and judging of animals by J. Kearns of the Department of Agriculture.

Winner of the Grand Championship was a 13-month old Angus owned by G. W. Erdell of Mayerthorpe. Reserve Grand Championship went to a 22 month old Hereford raised by Leo Miko's Double Gear Ranch of Evansburg.

Trophies donated by Sekura Auctions and Pembina Packers were awarded to the two top bulls.

Nursing Assn. Names Officers

At the April meeting of the Drayton Valley Chapter of the Alberta Association of Registered Nurses the executive for the May, 1968 to April, 1969, term of office was elected. Mrs. H. Dahl will remain as president for a second year; Mrs. P. McKillop will be Vice President. Servicing as secretary will be Mrs. B. Orieux while Mrs. B. Davies will be treasurer. Other positions filled were Program Committee, Mrs. B. Schoenroth and Mrs. B. Simon; Public Relations Officer, Mrs. V. Landry and Librarian, Mrs. E. Johnson.

After election of officers, a tape-recording was heard relating to the American Association of Schizophrenics Foundation meeting in Chicago, Illinois. The section heard was presented by Dr. W. Beebe M.D., Psychiatrist, who has practised psychiatry in the psychoanalytic and Fruedian manner for 18 years. He reported how, with an initial "tongue in cheek" attitude, he independently had repeated recent experimentation treating schizophrenics with the vitamin, Niacin. His conclusion, however, was that he experienced a 50% greater rate of recovery using Niacin than by using other methods of treatment. He also concluded that Schizaphrenia is not a disease entity by itself but rather a "catch all" terminology for probably a multiplicity of diseases, some endocrinal or metabolic. The "Hoffer Osmond Diagnostic" (HOD) test was also found to be a reliable diagnostic tool as well as a differential diagnostic tool along with theurine test for the malvoric factor found in most schizophrenics. From the information presented it became apparent that more research is needed to establish the cause of Schizophrenia and perhaps a more flexible attitude in the approach to treatment of this disease.

SWIMMING PROGRAM

Preparatory work has begun for the 1968 swimming season. The inclement weather is detrimental to very rapid progress in this work and if such weather continues it certainly will delay the opening of the facility. However, if warm, sunny weather would set in we could look forward to an early opening of the swimming season.

The major job at hand before the season opens is the painting of the interior of the pool. This is where the weather can plan a vital role in the progress of the preparatory work. A certain amount of heat and dry weather is required to make a satisfactory job of this painting

The interior of the dressing rooms have been painted and revamped in some respects over the winter months and all is in readiness for opening day. The plant, the heating and filtering systems have been serviced and hopefully are ready for another season's work

So much for the preparation of the pool and the problems involved. We turn to the item of pool staff for 1968.

Sharon Phelan has been hired and will return here this summer in the capacity of Chief Lifeguard. This will be Miss Phelan's fourth year of service at the local pool. She is presently working on her degree in Physical Education at the University of Alberta. Linda McMorris will also be on the pool staff again this season in the capacity of a lifeguard and swimming instructor. The services of a fully qualified male lifeguard and swimming instructor will be required. This position has not been filled as yet. The cashier duties will be handled by Mrs. Ruby Rose Vig and Margaret Mattoon. The Junior Leader Corps which was a great credit to our pool operation in 1967 will be part of our program again this year.

While on the swimming program, on behalf of the Drayton Valley Recreation Board and myself we would like to congratulate Bruce Hay, Barbara Henderson, Jill Kerr, and Neil Samis for having taken the Canadian Red Cross Society Senior Leaders' Course and having successfully passed the required examinations to becomecertified Red Cross Water Safety Leaders. These three young people will be a great help in our swimming instruction program this year and in years to come.

BASEBALL SOON

Next on our Minor Sports calendar is the grand old game of baseball. The unfavorable weather has not been very conducive toward the sport thus far, however, we are preparing the program and in a week or two there should be plenty of action.

We would like to organize this form of athletics at all levels from Mite to Juvenile if this is possible. For this we will need personnel at two levels. First, we will need interested players, plentiful enough to form the required teams or leagues to play the game in a any or all categories. Second, we will require sufficient coaches to handle the number of teams we organize. From all indications in early registration, we will have no shortage of players especially at the younger levels, however, coaching could be a problem. Anyone interested in coaching Minor baseball, please contact the Recreation Office at 542-3327. Your assistance is urgently needed for the next two or three months.

The proposed categories in this baseball program will be much along the same lines as Minor hockey. The age limits will be from six to nine years of age, from ten to twelve, from twelve to fourteen, from fourteen to sixteen and from sixteen to eighteen.

There is a good possibility that Drayton Valley will field teams in the Minor Oil Field Baseball League at the Pee Wee and Midget levels. A meeting for the purpose of organizing this league will be held at Warburg, on April 23. This meeting will be attended by representatives from the Drayton Valley Athletic Association.

Library Board Meeting

The Library Board held its second quarterly meeting in the library on Thursday, April 18th.

Mrs. Zolmer and Mrs. Ingram were appointed to find a replacement for Mrs. Cull who has moved away.

The secretary reported to the Board that Council has accepted responsibility for additional funds to make sure that the Library may operate on a balanced budget.

The custodian reported that two hundred eighteen books have been added to the collection since the first of the year and that circulation of adult books has almost tripled over the same period last year. A motion was adopted authorizing the custodian to set up a consent card system for under Grade 10 pupils to borrow adult literature from the library.

It was moved, seconded and passed that the Board authorize the custodian to suspend library members for rebellious and/or impudent behaviour or for disturbances of any kind.

The meeting was adjourned at 5:45. Next meeting to be held in June on the third Thursday at 4:45 in the library.

New Officers Installed By Local Association

The executive of the Local Association of the Guide and Brownie Mothers was changed at a general meeting held early this year. It now consists of Mrs. K. (Shirley) Machan, President; Mrs. J. (Nina) Woytovicz, Vice-President; Mrs. E. (Dorothy) Rendflesh, Secretary; and Mrs. F. (Barbara) Holan, Treasurer. Mrs. K. (Donna) Goble is serv serving a second term as Badge Secretary.

The Local Association, as the group is officially known, is composed of mothers of Rangers, Girl Guides and Brownies in Drayton Valley. The sole purpose of the organization is to promote and encourage the Guiding movement in the community without taking part in the actual leadership of the groups. Help, both personal and financial, is extended to the leaders and their girls when requested. This may range from testing girls who are applying for interest badges, to providing transportation to various Guiding functions, to helping toward the cost of sending girls to camp and leaders to training sessions.

While most of the financing for the group comes from a fee paid by the mothers on their daughters' enrolment, occasionally money raising projects are carried out to provide additional funds.

For this purpose, the Local Association will be having a Rag Drive next month. They are asking householders to save any clean rags or discarded clothing suitable for rags which will be picked up on May 22nd. In this way, your unwanted articles will provide funds to further a worthwhile youth project.

Economical production of beef using bulls and partial castrates is reported by a team of Canada Department of Agriculture researchers who have carried out a series of tests in the Lethbridge area.

Study Improved Beef Production

LETHBRIDGE--Bulls and partial castrates can be used to improve the efficiency of meat production.

Dr. R. Hironaka and Dr. C. B. Bailey made this statement after experiments they carried out at CDA's Research Station here. Recently they told of keeping bulls, steers and partial castrates on range to one year of age, then placing them in a feedlot until they reached market weight. In the feedlot the bulls gained 3.2 pounds per day, the partial castrates 2.9 and the steers 2.6.

Discussing the feed efficiency of the animals in the feedlot, the researchers show that in terms of lower feed costs and lower management costs due to the shorter feeding period, bulls and partial castrates have a clear advantage over the steers.

From an initial weight of 380 pounds, the bulls reached a market weight of 965 pounds in 180 days but the partial castrates required 201 days and the steers 222 days to reach market weight. Although the bulls ate more feed per day (22.0 pounds) than the partial castrates (20.7 pounds) or steers (19.8 pounds), their total consumption was less because of the shorter feeding period. As a result, the feed requirement per pound of gain was least for bulls (6.92 pounds), greatest for steers (7.43 pounds), and intermediate for partial castrates (7.36 pounds).

The greater efficiency of the bulls can be attributed, the researchers say, to: a smaller proportion of the total feed being utilized for "maintenance" in the bulls; and a greater proportion of the gain of bulls being in the form of lean, which requires less feed per unit of gain than does fat.

Feed costs per animal were $97,, $101, and $108 for bulls, partial castrates, and steers, and gross returns per animal at slaughter were $255, $256, and $260. This gives returns per animal after feed costs of $158 for bulls, $155 for partial castrates and $152 for steers.

Bulls and partial castrates are therefore the more efficient meat producers.

Traditional concepts of carcass quality are changing in favor of leaner carcasses, the Lethbridge scientists point out. With this change, much more emphasis will be given to the raising of bulls for slaughter. It is already a common practice in many European countries.

"Adventure High Arctic" Attracts Large Crowd

St. Anthony's auditorium was well filled last Thursday evening by about 400 people who enjoyed Edgar Jones film "Adventure High Arctic". The show was sponsored by Rotary Club whose members have expressed pleasure at the attendance and the quality of the entertainment offered.

The film was a comprehensive account of Mr. Jones travels in the Arctic Archipeligo and the Eastern Arctic. Mr. Jones, a well known Canadian naturalist photographer, took five years to make the complete film.

Wild life of the tundra was portrayed in many interesting close up studies of birds and animals. Life with the Eskimos of the Eastern Arctic and their hunting expeditions was another highlight of the movie.

Perhaps of greatest interest to this area's many anglers was the fabulous fresh water fishing for actic char. The brilliantly colored fish is second to none for sport and eating.

Viewers ended the trip to Canada's north with a visit to northern fishing camp catering to fly-in sportsmen from all over the North-American continent.

Early spring farmland burning will result in forcing birds to establish nests in areas less apt to be disturbed later by tilling operations as well as by fire.

Late spring burning destroys thousands of nests which have been established where cover is so dense that fire often seems to be the only practical method of removal.

Health Hints from THE CANADIAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION

GRUMBLING APPENDIX

"Grumbling appendix" is not a medical or surgical term, The Canadian Medical Association reports. It is often used by the public to describe a chronic or sub-acute inflammation of the appendix. Such a condition does not call for immediate surgery.

Chronic or sub-acute appendicitis, however, can in time progress to the acute stage. When it does, it is accompanied by a sudden increase in abdominal pain, very often with nausea and vomiting. The patient may become acutely ill within a few hours. Early diagnosis and immediate surgery is the rule.

If an appendix can be said to grumble, it may in time, like a volcano, come to the point of eruption. The C.M.A says this must be avoided at all costs.

Examine Pembina Crude

Mayor Fred Johns and Secretary-Treasurer Bill Bell of Leduc examine a sample bottle of Pembina crude oil held by Drayton Valley Councillor Mrs. Mary Burrows. The group was part of the gathering of town secretaries, mayors and councillors who attended a regional meeting in Drayton Valley on Wednesday, April 17th.

ARDA Program Discussed At Styal F.U.A. Meeting

The Styal FUA local held its regular monthly meeting on the 18th at the Legion Hall. The date of the meeting had been changed this month from the usual second Tuesday to the Wednesday to accommodate other local members who planned to attend.

There were members present from Park Court, Styal, Hollysprings, Chip Lake and Entwistle. Mayor Len Corkery was in attendance as well as Mr. Frank Belyea from Edson and Mr. D. Lowe, Agricultural Field Man for Municipal Affairs.

Since this meeting was to be more of a workshop type of meeting to discuss the activities sponsored by the ARDA program, Mr. Pete Peterson took the chair to lead the discussion. Mr. Peterson is a member of the ARDA Advisory Council for this end of CD 14. He explained the make-up of the various councils or groups which meet to discuss the ARDA program.

Mr. Belyea then took over the chair and explained that the ARDA program falls into three categories or groups. One is the program looking after the utilization of land for agricultural purposes; one is a program of training and education. At the present ARDA has helped 37 families with this program as well as having helped younger people through the youth training branch.

The third branch of the ARDA program is recreation and tourism. A recreation commission has been formed and we should soon see some of the results.

Other matters that Mr. Belyea mentioned were the cattle raising policy and land clearing programs. Mr. Belyea also mentioned that this area now has the first youth supervisor in the province. He also urged the farmers to make use of their District Agriculturist as this office is for the use of the farmers.

A question and answer period followed.

A breakdown of the recent payments given for use in the ARDA program was given to those attending. Drainage projects in the area, seed cleaning plant combined with feed mill and grain storage facilities were also discussed. There is now a survey being conducted in regards to this matter. Mr. Bradfold, an agricultural technician will come to the area soon to help with the survey.

Mr. Peterson urged the group present to work as a unit to benefit from the ARDA program.

Directed to the ladies present was some information on the home visiting program now in effect in the western end of the area. This program is in operation at Hinton and Edson and is being organized at Peers and Niton and will soon come to Wildwood.

An announcement was made to the effect that there will be a Community Pasture meeting at the Gainford Elks Hall at 1:30 on April 29th.

To close the meeting, Mr. Corkery spoke a few words urging the people to try and hold more of these workshop type of meetings.

Coffee and doughnuts were served by the ladies of the Styal local.

BURTONSVILLE NEWS

MRS. A. HOMME,
Correspondent

A good crowd turned out for the Easter service at the church. Rev. Kennedy gave an inspiring message.

Visitors over the weekend at Axel and Cecil Homme's were Dick and Lily Wheadon and children of Whitecourt; Zoltan and Norma Petriko and boys of Edmonton; and Albert and Bernice Osbak and children of St. Francis.

Mr. and Mrs. Hank Kaiser also of Mewasin visited at Cecil and June Homme's on Sunday.

Eldon and Marge Greanya and children are taking their Easter holidays at Swift Current Saskatchewan where they are visiting Marge's grandmother. Mary Tattersall accompanied them and will visit Rev. and Mrs. Bert Larwill at Cadalac, Saskatchewan.

Albert Osbak visited Bill and Melvin Homme at Red Deer on Good Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Axel Homme were pleasantly surprised on Tuesday when their nephew Wesley Walker and his wife Audrey and two boys of Prince George, B.C. dropped in for a short visit.

The children as well as adults were thrilled at watching the eclipse of the moon on Good Friday the 12th of April.

It has taken a lot of money and a lot of time to teach children they don't have to work.

EVANSBURG

MRS. M. BRUNER,
Correspondent

Well, here we are, as this is being written in the middle of the Easter holidays. The boys are finding it hard to keep really interested in their play as the weather is so unsettled. Some of the teachers have told me that when school begins after the holidays there will be only 31 days of study left.

The 4-H club members held their regular meeting on the 13th with most of the members attending. Many of them went to Stony Plain to take part in the Council Rally. This show was enjoyed by all from this end who attended.

Our man of the house has been in the Drayton Hospital for a couple of days for tests and checkups. He is now back home again and trying to follow doctors' orders.

The Styal FUA local held their regular meeting on the 17th of the month. A detailed account of this appears elsewhere in the paper.

It seems that Mr. Mike Mazeppa got off the worse when he began chasing a calf the other day. We don't know who won the race but we hear that Mr. Mazeppa has one finger in a cast as a result of the great chase.

We wish to extend the best of wishes for success to Mrs. Hohman who has taken over management of the Evansburg Hotel Cafe which was formerly operated by Miss Anna Kaluba.

Plan Changes in Stamp Booklets

The Canada Post Office has announced the introduction of two new stamp booklets to be sold across the counter at One Dollar each.

The booklets will replace the cello-packs now in use. Available in the four and five cent stamp denominations, the booklets will be more economical to produce and more convenient to carry in pocket or purse. Their introduction will come gradually, as current supplies of cello-packs become exhausted.

At the same time, stamp booklets priced at 25¢ will lose their present format in favour of an improved moisture resistant one, featuring a vinyl coating on appropriate surfaces.

Tomahawk Church Scene Of Smith-Nixon Wedding

Immanuel Lutheran Church of Tomahawk was the setting for a lovely spring wedding on April 20th at 2:00 p.m. as Virginia Ruth Darlene Nixon and Gary Steven Smith exchanged marriage vows. Due to illness Rev. Drawbaugh was unable to attend so Rev. W.J. Koehler of Spruce Grove officiated. The organist was Mrs. Adele Steinke and Miss Virginia Solomon sang "Wedding Prayer".

The bride was radiant in a white floor-length, lace-trimmed gown with a matching train and short veil. She carried a bouquet of red roses as her father, John Nixon escorted her to the altar.

The maid of honor was Miss Gloria Yonke and bridesmaids were Mrs. Rita Dieb and Miss Bonnie Hutchinson. The bride's attendants wore identical floor-length mauve gowns with white over lace on the bodice and train.

The best man was Mr. Jim Galusha and the groom's attendants were Mr. William Deib and Mr. Earl Nixon. Ushers were Mr. Kenneth Dusterhoft and Mr. David Dusterhoft.

Mrs. Ruth Nixon, mother of the bride, wore a beautiful green lace dress and corsage of red roses.

A wedding reception was held in the Tomahawk Hall with the Tomahawk Lutheran Ladies catering to the supper. Master of ceremonies at the reception was Mr. Herb Zander, uncle of the bride.

After the supper the bride and groom opened the gifts and a dance followed.

The bride and groom left on Monday, April 22nd for their honeymoon trip to Victoria, B.C.

Two solemn-visaged men went fishing in an old launch. For three hours neither moved a muscle. Then the one up forward became a bit restless.

"Darm it, Sam," grumbled his companion, "that's the second time you've shifted your feet in half an hour. Did you come out here to fish or dance?"

What about Bonded Fabrics? Shrinkage, separation, deterioration and discoloration are some of the problems consumers have with bonded fabrics.

Mrs. Mona Cox, Clothing and Textile Specialist with the Alberta Department of Agriculture, says there are many bonded garments on the market this spring and an array of bonded fabrics for the home sewer. These bonded fabrics or coined fabrics as they are more correctly called are made by bonding two fabrics together by heat or an adhesive. A variety of outer fabrics ranging from lace to knits are used but the inner fabric is usually acetat tricot.

Bonded fabrics are popular with garment manufactures because they have a built-in lining, they are easy to sew and the inside of the garment is smooth and soft. For the same reasons they are popular with the home sewer. However, the problems arise with the care of these garments.

A woman made a dress from bonded fabric priced at $6.98 a yard and after three wearings the skirt stretched out of shape. Another friend had two pair of slacks instead of one after the first cleaning--the outer surface ones and the tricot ones. Still another says her bonded dress shrunk so much after the first cleaning she was unable to wear it again. Such complaints are common.

No drycleaner will guarantee the cleaning of these garments. Tests at the School of Household Economics, University of Alberta, show they launder poorly and show even more shrinkage than when they are drycleaned. According to one dry cleaning firm, the garment may clean satisfactorily the first time but on a later cleaning it may shrink or separate.

Efforts are being made to improve the quality of bonded fabrics. Coin International is a manufacturing organization employing standards and a Coin International hand tag on a garment is your only guarantee of satisfaction.
